

THE LAUGHING-STOCK OF EVERY WRITER, EVERY ARTIST, EVERY HISTORIAN, EVERY CLASSICIST, EVERY LINGUIST, EVERY PHILOSOPHER IN THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING WORLD

Just your Achilles' heel, isn't it, Doctor, the University, people who are actually literate, intelligent and educated, unlike the freaks of medicine who pollute and destroy.

Make you sad sick freaks the laughing-stock of every educated person in the English-speaking world.

Don't you think I should finish and publish this first?

Look at all the pretty polly parrots who repeat the garbage they've been told by Authority.

Huge joke aren't they the jabbering whining babbling shit-filled polly parrots. Except they are insolently evil, butchers, traitors.

Isn't a degree in Medicine such a fucking joke? These creatures can't think, can't reason, can't learn, all strutting around thinking they're Christ Almighty in their own little world, bestially ignorant, think they know everything because they possess a high baboon intelligence that enables them to do clever things within a limited frame of reference: no intellect, no mind.

Their regulayshuns and proseedyures of course are a copious frame of reference. It doesn't occur to the baboons that these can be challenged, that they may be evil filth. It's the RULES. Well so fucking what if it is also sick garbage.

Doubtless of course it is the RULES that a woman who has had major spinal surgery should be put in a space the width of a chair and subjected to further physical abuse.

Similarly of course it's the LAW. Conspiring to pervert the course of justice, overthrowing democracy, giving aid and comfort to the enemies of the Queen, causing actual bodily harm are indeed the LAW.

THE CLOSED (SEALED/WOUNDED/STUNTED/PRACTICALLY NON-EXISTENT) MIND

Grand-daughter of one of the earliest members of the Labour Party repeatedly brutally abused then left for dead at the express order of fascists and traitors, avatars of criminality, corruption and degradation. You may know them as doctors and nurses. It is reasonably clear that if these people were questioned by any normal educated intelligent person in an open forum where their lunatic notions of Authority, the pathetic and diseased convictions of the psychotic that what they say goes because they say it, so disguising their inability to provide argument or fact supporting the argument and attempting feebly to disguise their rejection of and contempt for others' equal right to speak, they would come over as severely retarded, completely intellectually incapable. But they can't be... So really what the fuck is wrong with them? Certainly fear addles minds. Certainly they are ruled by fear. Certainly fear may be inculcated in them, frightened of getting into trouble, frightened of going to hell. Certainly the fear also contains them internally, they identify themselves with what they believe and if they feel those beliefs threatened they fear they will disintegrate. While the ceiling on thought imposed by a belief-system is of course arbitrary and the ceiling on thought imposed by biology is of course not, each represents a closed system. The Vatican/insert drug of choice/Vatican particularly among the religious but also of course Stalinism and Maoism drools that of course it upholds reason and means by that that the frame of reference, the boundaries of the system, the bricks in the wall are not to be questioned, all that may be 'questioned' are the elements in the box, though in fact this is not so much active questioning as a passive exercise in understanding how those elements fit together, because of course if and when the bricks are questioned the whole thing collapses, and so what is meant by 'reasoning' is understanding how what is given comes to be Much learning of biology must necessarily be the same, understanding the mechanism by which A becomes B. The thinking is relational. Sounds good. Is it? Possibly even necessarily relational. Ooh, ooh. It is learning to understand how, how absolutism works, how the liver functions, how the dictatorship of the proletariat leads to the withering away of the State. That in biology the bricks are real, you cannot challenge what a muscle cell does and adduce argument to demonstrate that actually it performs the functions of a platelet, does not I think affect the general process. With regard to religion, the bricks are of course not there.. Could I have said this before?

The Reformation was an expansion of thought beyond the entirely arbitrary limits set by the Vatican, as the Enlightenment and so the present day are expansions of thought beyond the bounds set by Christianity. Minds can go anywhere and where love and reason guide them the result is a vast improvement on anything before. Those in mental cages are going to have to grasp this.

Basically what these creatures are is impenetrably mad and impenetrably bad, united in the common purpose of upholding their entirely criminal power, whereby they command and others obey, and whatever infected drool falls from their lips is regarded with awe and wonder, a system that began to crumble with Magna Carta in 1215.

Little clockwork wind-up toys, endlessly reiterating the words in their heads that bear no relation to reality and must never be challenged by reality.
